Member Representatives

If you have a question or a pension issue you'd like to raise that can't be resolved by the Pension Scheme Administrator, please feel free to contact any of the Member Representatives as listed over the next few pages at your site (or previous site if you are a deferred member).

Member Representatives:

- > Provide a formal channel through which matters of particular interest or concern to both in-service and deferred members (members who have left service) can be raised;
- > Are actively involved in improving communication links between you, BAE Systems and the Pension Scheme Administrators;
- > Are available to you to help answer factual questions about the Scheme and pensions in general (without giving advice);
- > Take the lead in signposting you to the right information or right contact

Other places to go for helpful pension information

The BAE Systems pensions website is the best place to find detailed information on the BAE Systems Pension Scheme: baesystems.com/pensions including Scheme booklets, access to instant retirement quotes and modelling tools.

If you are a Defined Contribution (DC) Retirement Plan member, a Level 100+ member or pay Additional Voluntary Contributions, Standard Life has provides a one stop shop for all the information you need to manage your DC Account: standardlifepensions.com/bspp/index.page

Remember there are also many independent sources of information that you can draw upon including:

moneyadviceservice.org.uk which has been set up by the Government to provide free and impartial money advice.

- > Advice and guides to help improve your finances
- > Tools and calculators to help keep track and plan ahead
- > Support over the phone and online

pensionsadvisoryservice.org.uk which provides free, independent and impartial pension guidance. The Pensions Advisory Service works to make pensions accessible and understandable for everyone.

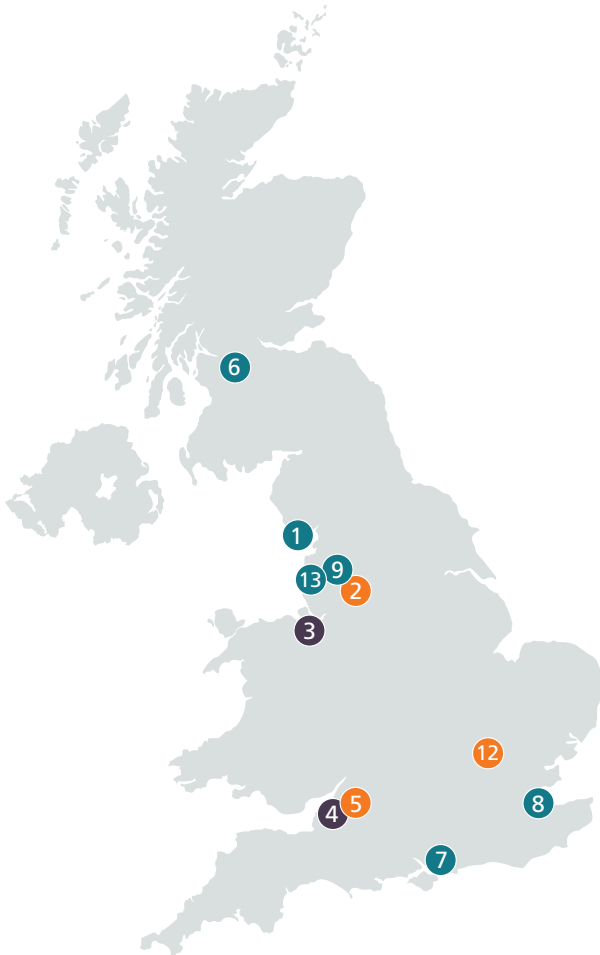

pensionwise.gov.uk provides free and impartial government guidance about your defined contribution pension options. This guidance is available to those aged 50 and over.

Independent Financial Advice: Member Representatives are not authorised to provide financial advice and for this you need to contact an Independent Financial Adviser (IFA). To find an IFA in your local area you can visit: directory.moneyadviceservice.org.uk or unbiased.co.uk
