Please complete this form with the names and addresses of those people you would like the Trustee to consider as beneficiaries in the event of your death. You will need to complete a new Expression of Wish form if your circumstances change.

Lump sum death benefit

Under the Scheme, in most circumstances only the Trustee can decide who should receive a lump sum benefit which becomes payable after your death. You can help the Trustee to make a decision by providing details of the people (which can include certain organisations, charities, etc) who you would like to receive this lump sum benefit. The Trustee will bear your wishes in mind when making a decision, but is not legally bound by them.

I wish the Trustee to consider paying lump sum death benefits to the following person(s).

Name and address	Relationship	% of benefit
		100%

If you wish to nominate more than four people, or there are any special circumstances which you wish the Trustee to consider, please enclose a separate letter with this form.

Dependant’s pension

In addition to any lump sum death benefit, a Dependant’s pension may also be payable. If you are married and living with your Spouse or Civil Partner, they are automatically assumed to be a dependant.

If you are not married, or if you wish the Trustee to consider someone who is financially dependent on you, other than your Spouse or Civil Partner, please complete this section. While the Trustee will bear your wishes in mind, it is not legally bound by them.

I understand that the Dependant’s pension in certain circumstances may be paid at the discretion of the Trustee and would like the Trustee to consider the person(s) named below.
