

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

Season	Season Title	Volunteer of the Year	Champions Award Winner
2000-2001	Volcanic Panic
2001-2002	Arctic Impact
2002-2003	City Sights		Royal Blue Pride
2003-2004	Mission Mars	Sky Sweeney	Mindstorms Mayhem
2004-2005	No Limits		Mindstorms Mayhem
2005-2006	Ocean Odyssey	Bryan Lee	Mindstorms Mayhem
2006-2007	Nano Quest	Randy Bohannon	The Inventioners
2007-2008	Power Puzzle	Dave and Nancy Kelso	The Inventioners
2008-2009	Climate Connections	Kristen Lande	The Inventioners
2009-2010	Smart Move	Kerry Creeden	The Inventioners
2010-2011	Body Forward	Peter Dusaitis	The Vulcans
2011-2012	Food Factor	Marie Schulmann	NXtreme Team
2012-2013	Senior Solutions	Christopher Palie	The Wisdom Hunters
2013-2014	Nature's Fury	Ken Streeter	Naturally Disastrous

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

2012

Champion's Awards

First Place: Team 101, The Wisdom Hunters

Second Place: Team 6519, NXTreMe Team

Third Place: Team 5323, The 4-1-1

Performance Awards

First Place: Team 4179, HUES Lightning

Second Place: Team 3913, Out of this World

Core Values Awards

Gracious Professionalism: Team 3624 Xbot 360

Teamwork: Team 7744, Blue Herons Team Delta

Inspiration: Team 3915, Build for Fun

Project Awards

Presentation: Team 228, The Flying Geeks

Innovative Solution: Team 8577, The Pantocrators

Research: Team 9496, The Young Whippersnappers

Robot Design Awards

Strategy and Innovation: Team 849, Mindstorms Mayhem

Programming: Team 3913, Out of this World

Mechanical Design: Team 4179, HUES Lightning

Judges' Awards

Upside Down Award: Team 5102, The Robotic Pumas

Team Spirit: Team 6473, The Cookie Monsters

Making Connections: Team 5182, Whippersnappers

Rookie Award: Team 5128, Ruby Red Monkeys from Mars

Effective Time Management: Team 7366, FUUSEion

Connecting People: Team 15672, L3

Young Adult Mentor Award: Mandy Graves, Team 8577 Pantocrators

Adult Mentor Award: Kathi Rienstra, Team 5323

Volunteer of the Year Award: Christopher Palie – BAE Systems

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

Champion's Awards

First Place: Team 4725, NXTreme Team

Second Place: Team 1, Mindstorm Mayhem

Performance Awards

First Place: Team 4725, NXTreme Team

Second Place: Team 5704, HUES Lightning

Core Values Awards

Gracious Professionalism: Team

Teamwork: Team 10661, More Chaotic Robotics

Inspiration: Team4140, The Yappin' Yodas

Project Awards

Presentation: Team

Innovative Solution: Team

Research: Team 4820, Hybrid Hawks

Robot Design Awards

Strategy and Innovation: Team

Programming: Team

Mechanical Design: Team

Judges' Awards

Upside Down Award: Team

Team Spirit: Team

Making Connections: Team

Rookie Award: Team

Effective Time Management: Team

Connecting People: Team

Young Adult Mentor Award: TBD

Adult Mentor Award: TBD

Volunteer of the Year Award: TBD

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

2010

Body Forward Champion's Awards

First Place: Team 7414, the Vulcans

Second Place: Team 3178, Your Udder Defeat

Third Place: Team 7345, the NXTreme team

Body Forward Robot Design Awards

First Place: Team 4468, the Windham Wizards

Second Place: Team 3474, the Blue Screen of Death

Third Place: Team 913 the Panther Bots.

Body Forward Project Presentation Awards

First Place: Team 1 Mindstorm Mayhem

Second Place: Team 4981, Holy Cow!

Third Place: Team 5700, the Blockheads

Body Forward Teamwork Awards

First Place: Team 831, SAPIENTIA Venatores

Second Place: Team 6611, the PatroBots

Third Place: Team 178, Born to Build

Body Forward Performance Awards

First Place: Team 4468, Windham Wizards

Second Place: Team 7345, NXTreme Team

Third Place: Team 1, Mindstorm Mayhem

Body Forward Judges' Awards

Judges' award – Rookie award: Team 2700, Pantocrator's

Judges' award – No Borders: Team 111, Make a Difference

Judges' award – Young Spirit: Team 9688 HUES Lightning

Judges' award – Pay it Forward: Team 2083, the Techno Chicks II

Judges' award – Additive/Subtractive: Team 266, Sasquatch

Judges' award – Using Their Heads: Team 5976 Lightning Legos

Body Forward Outstanding Mentor Awards

Adult Coach Mentor award: Mr. Zach Fowler

Young Adult Mentor award: The Inventioneers

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

2009

Champion's Awards

First Place Champion's Award: Team 3013 The Inventioners

Second Place Champion's Award: Team 3868 Your Udder Defeat

Third Place Champion's Award: Team 629 Weare bots

Performance Awards

First Place Performance Award: Team 721, The Flying Geeks, Score: 390

Second Place Performance Award: Team 4296, Windham Wizards, Score: 360

Third Place Performance Award: Team 3013, The Inventioners

Teamwork Awards

First Place Teamwork Award: Team 8691 Digital Dweebs

Second Place Teamwork Award: Team 8105 Techno Chicks II

Third Place Teamwork Award: Team 5879 Exhausted

Smart Move Project Presentation Awards

First Place Project Presentation Award: Team 3792 Vulcans

Second Place Project Presentation Award: Team 4296 Windham Wizards

Third Place Project Presentation Award: Team 3143 Cosmic Creators

Robot Design Awards

First Place Robot Design Award: Team 721 Flying Geeks

Second Place Robot Design Award: Team 421 Black Holes

Third Place Robot Design Award: Team 627 Blue Screen of Death BSOD

Judges' Awards

Rising Star Judges' Award: Team 6670 RoboPanthers

Community Connection Judges' Award: Team 4997 Team FUUSEion

Programming Judges' Award: Team 384 SASQUATCH

No Limits Judges' Award: Team 328 Legonators

Rookie All-star Judges' Award: Team 5877 NEXtreme Team

Team Spirit Award: Team 929 Bella

Adult Coach/Mentor Award: Jim Boivin, coach of team 4, Some Assembly Required

Young Adult Mentor Award: Emily Sanseverino, mentor of team 8105 Techno Chicks II

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

2008

Champions Award:

First Place: Team 2004, The Inventioners

Second Place: Team #44, Mindstorms Mayhem

Robot Design Award

First Place: Team 670, Girls Precision Robotics Team

Second Place: Team 5896, Windham Wizards

Third Place: Team 2375, Blue Screen of Death

Project Award

First Place: Team 399, The Solar Hawks

Second Place: Team 5899, Out of the Box

Third Place: Team 1097, And the Cat

Teamwork Award

First Place: Climate Crusaders

Second Place: Team 3596, TNT

Third Place: Team 6111, Scorching Skiers

Judges Awards

Judges Award (Team Mentorship): Team 3324, Digital Dweebs

Judges Award (Gracious Professionalism): Team 6771, Go Green Lego Team

Judges Award (Level Loaded Effect): Team 6289, Sappy Spartans

Judges Award (FLL Musical Review): Team 4610, atomsFEAR

Judges Award (FLL All-Star Award): Team 3484, Your Udder Defeat

Team Spirit: Team 1609, Masters of Mind Storms

Young Adult: Alex Pelkey (Team 2375)

Adult Mentor: Stephan Farrington (6261)

Volunteer of the Year: Kristen Lande

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

Champions Award: Team 1976, The Inventioneers

Technical Performance Awards (highest overall score based on the robot's performance in the timed rounds)

First Place: Team 33, Mindstorm's Mayhem

Second Place: Team 20, Renewable Energy Hogs

Third Place: Team 2178, the Computer Chips

Fourth Place: Team 3493, Lego Lightning Lords

Technical Robot Design Awards (best incorporation of team design and programming)

First Place: Team 293, And the Cat

Second Place: Team 33, Mindstorm's Mayhem

Third Place: Team 5298, Watt's Up, Doc?

Team Project Presentation Awards (best proposal concept, documentation and oral presentation)

First Place: Team 123, G.P.R.T. (Girls Precision Robotics Team)

Second Place: Team 20, Renewable Energy Hogs

Third Place: Team 1915, Space Cowboys

Teamwork Awards (team whose members best demonstrate enthusiasm and spirit, partnering among themselves and among the teams, and problem solving skills)

First Place: Team 155, Oh My

Second Place: Team 590, New Boston RoboSox

Third Place: Team 637, Mach 6

Special Judges' Awards (recognize particularly innovative strategies and performance)

The Judges' Rookie All Star Team Award: Team 2912, Team FUUSEion

The Judges' Mentorship Award: Team 3077, Chicnology

The Judges' Community Outreach Award: Team 3554, Lebanon Lightning Legos

The Judges' Jedi Hardware Award: Team 3521, Lebanon LeafHoppers

Team Spirit Award: Team 155, Oh My

The Adult Mentor Award: Frank Merrick (Team 2912)

The Young Adult Mentor Award: Justin Benham (Team 3024)

Outstanding Volunteer Award: Dave and Nancy Kelso (Manchester Central FIRST Robotics, Team 131)

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History2006*Director's Awards (overall well-rounded teams)*First Place: The Inventioners, Team 1693 from Pelham, earned the Director's Award.Second Place: Team 1405, the Nano Monkeys from Elm Street Middle School, Nashua.Technical Performance Awards (highest overall score based on the robot's performance in the timed rounds):First Place: Team 195, The Flying Geeks from Nashua Christian Academy.Second Place: Team 2624, the Nano Hogs from Safford School in Hollis.Third Place: Team 5, Mindstorms Mayhem, Milford Area Youth Homeschoolers Enriching Minds.Fourth Place: Team 1727, Chicnology from Merrimack Middle School and Thornton's Ferry Elementary School, Merrimack.Technical Robot Design Awards (incorporation of robot design and programming):First Place: Team 195, The Flying Geeks.Second Place: Team 619, Mach 6 from Manchester Church of Christ.Third Place: Team 2624, the Nano Hogs.Team Project Presentation Awards (best proposal concept, documentation and oral presentation) went to:First Place: Team 2517, the Handy Green Machines from Chester Academy.Second Place: Team 1773, Artificial Intelligence from South Meadow School in Peterborough.Third Place: Team 5095, Girls Precision Robotics Team (GPRT) from Manchester.Teamwork Awards (team whose members best demonstrate enthusiasm and spirit, partnering among themselves and among the teams, and problem solving skills):First Place: Team 5, Mindstorms MayhemSecond Place: Team 1560, The Computer Chips from Londonderry.Third Place: Team 1840, Nanohawks from Hillside Middle School, Manchester.Special Judges' Awards (recognize particularly innovative strategies and performance):The Judges' Rookie Team Award: Team 1817, The New Boston Robo-Sox from Bedford.The Judges' High 5 Award for Ultimate Grace Under Pressure: Team 1478, the Memorial Mini-Mindstormers from Hudson Memorial School.The Judges' Perfect Process Award for Planning and Execution: Team 1596, the iBot Nanos from Amherst Middle School.The Judges' Against All Odds Award (Recognizes the team that persevered despite several setbacks): Team 574, the Hampstead Hackers from Hampstead Academy in Atkinson.The Outstanding Coach Award: Jen Gaffney, an 8th grade math teacher from Elm Street Middle School.Outstanding Volunteer Award: Randy Bohannon, the Flying Geeks coach and team mentor.Young Adult Mentor Awards: Kristine Zeeb and Celia Nissen for the support and guidance they provided to the Space Cowboys team throughout the FLL season.

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

Director's Award (Overall best performance based on five elements: robot design, robot performance score, research presentation, team work and FLL values)

First Place: Mindstorms Mayhem, Nashua, N.H.

Second Place: Mach 6, Manchester Church of Christ, Manchester, N.H.

Technical Performance Award (Highest overall score based on the robot's performance in the timed rounds):

First Place: More Mayhem, homeschoolers, N.H.

Second Place: The NERDS, New Hampshire Robotics Institute, Windham, N.H.

Technical Robot Design Award (Best incorporation of team design and programming):

First Place: The NERDS, New Hampshire Robotics Institute, Windham, N.H.

Second Place: Pirate Hogs, The Safford School, Hollis, N.H.

Team Project Presentation Award (Best proposal concept, documentation, and oral presentation):

First Place: Sea Urchins from Elm Street Middle School, Nashua, N.H.

Second Place: More Mayhem, homeschoolers, N.H.

Teamwork Award (Team whose members best demonstrate enthusiasm and spirit, partnering among themselves and among the teams, and problem solving skills):

First Place: Technical Difficulty, South Meadow School, Peterborough, N.H.

Second Place: Flying Geeks, Nashua Christian Academy, Nashua, N.H.

Rookie Inspiration Award: Chaotic Robotics from New Boston, N.H.

Best Innovative Solution Award (For unique use of components in the robot's design and performance): And The Cat, homeschoolers from Strafford, N.H.

Gracious Professionalism Award (For their noted interaction with the other FLL participants, judges and the audience): Top Blocks, a Caring Kids 4-H Club from Brentwood, N.H.

Creative Style Award (Recognizing the unique presentation of the results of their studies): DigiDudes.

Team Spirit Award: Shmieglehumberflu.

Outstanding Volunteer Award: Bryan Lee

Outstanding Coach Award: Kevin Desaulniers (The Majigerz from Presentation of Mary Academy, Hudson, N.H.)

Outstanding Young Adult: Brittany Jennings.

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

2004

Director's Award (overall best performance based on five elements: robot design, robot performance score, research presentation, team work and FLL values)

First Place: Team #7 Mindstorms Mayhem

Second Place: Team #1328 Tekno Devils

Research Quality Award

First Place: Team #1328 Tekno Devils

Second Place: Team #210 The Stephen Hawking Experience

Innovative Solution Award

First Place: Team #511 Liquid Fire

Second Place: Team #3946 McKelvie Dark Seers

Creative Presentation Award

First Place: Team #2822 The Pleiades

Second Place: Inventioneers

Robust Design Award

First Place: Team #2847 Wheelchair Warriors

Second Place: Team #2849 AFA Engineers

Innovative Programming Award

First Place : Team #901 Hampstead Hackers

Second Place: Team #1353 Batteries Not Included

Innovative Design Award

First Place : Team #1337 Nitro Hogs

Second Place: Team #818 Scorpacudas

Robust Programming Award

First Place : Team #1362 EAGLES

Second Place: Team #1748 The Munchkins

Teamwork (team that best demonstrates partnership, respect and problem solving skills with other teams)

First Place: Team #1428 Robobusters

Second Place: Team #1427 Robotic Trees

Rookie Award (rookie team that best shows promise) went to Team #2544 Inventioneers

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

2004 - Continued

Robot Performance Award (highest scoring team robot in the tournament elimination round)

First Place: Team #7 MIndstorms Mayhem

Second Place: Team #3983 MCA Minds-In-Motion

Third Place: Team #1362 Eagles

Fourth Place: Team #1337 Nitro Hogs

Judges Awards (recognizing remarkable achievements)

Team Spirit Award: Team #1629 The Lego Chicks

Against All Odds: Team #1340 Spartan Enablers

Class Act: Team #2853 TThe Legonators

The Right Stuff: Team #2208 The Right Angle

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

MISSION MARS
2003

Director's Award (overall best performance based on five elements: robot design, robot performance score, research presentation, team work and FLL values)

First Place: Mindstorms Mayhem

Second Place: The Flying Geeks

Technical innovative Design (most original approach to solving the challenge)

First Place: Team 50937

Second Place: Twitching Martian Masters

Technical Robust Design (best mechanical design)

First Place: The Flying Geeks

Second Place: M.A.R.S. "The Virus"

Technical Programming (program that best bridges the gap between robot hardware and team strategy)

First Place: Space Cowboys

Second Place: The Munchkins

Research Presentation (best reflects an understanding of the issues and scientific disciplines involved in the challenge theme)

First Place for quality research: Batteries No Included

Second Place: Martian Vipers

First Place for innovative solution: Red Ice

Second Place: Engine Ears

First Place for creative presentation: Tekno Devils

Second Place: The Red Man Group

Teamwork (team that best demonstrates partnership, respect and problem solving skills with other teams)

First Place: Zoom (WGBH - Boston)

Second Place: The Pleiades

Rookie Award (rookie team that best shows promise) went to Mars Pets

Team Spirit Award (team that most enthusiastically demonstrates a commitment to the challenge) went to Liquid Fire

Performance Award (highest scoring team robot in the tournament elimination round)

First Place: Robosquad

Second Place: Spoink

Third Place: Mindstorms Mayhem

Fourth Place: Flying Geeks

Judges Awards (recognizing remarkable achievements)

Against All Odds: The Dumplings

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

2003 - Continued

Gracious Professionalism: Robo Hobos

Young Adult Coach/Mentor (high school or college student whose support and guidance best demonstrates FLL values and objectives): Kristen Kelso, Zoom

Adult Coach/Mentor (individual whose support and guidance best demonstrates FLL values and objectives): Steve George, Merrimack

Outstanding Volunteer Skye Sweeney, Nashua

For a variety of leadership roles and contributions to the local league effort. A long-time FLL volunteer, Sweeney wrote this year's coach handbook, planned and led two local tournaments and contributed to the New Hampshire State tournament Web site.

FIRST® LEGO® League Championship Tournament History

Director's Award (overall best performance is four elements: robot design, robot performance, research presentation and teamwork)

#2295 Royal Blue Pride - Weare Middle School, Weare

Technical innovative Design (most original approach to solving the challenge)

#2295 Royal Blue Pride

Technical Robust Design (best mechanical design)

#1405 Mach 6 - Manchester Church of Christ, Manchester

Technical Programming (program that best bridges the gap between robot hardware and team strategy)

#861 Inverse Kinematics (IKe) - Elm Street Junior High, Nashua

Research Presentation (best reflects an understanding of the issues and scientific disciplines involved in the challenge theme)

First Place: #2295 Royal Blue Pride

Second Place: #1265 Mindstorms Mayhem - Homeschoolers, Milford

Teamwork (team that best demonstrates partnership, respect and problem solving skills with other teams)

#1262 Fast Precision Electronics - Hudson Memorial School, Hudson

Rookie Award (rookie team that best shows promise)

#1312 Team Tiger - Pelham Kids, Pelham

Team Spirit Award (team that most enthusiastically demonstrates a commitment to the challenge)

#2062 LEGO Chicks - Girls Inc., Manchester

Against All Odds

#3777 Bulldogs - Campton Elementary School, Campton

Pit Award (most creative work station)

#3069 Techno-Geeks - St Patrick School, Jaffrey

Creative Award

1770 50937 - Concord

Well Spoken Award

859 Electric Jelly Donuts - New Searles Elementary, Nashua

Performance Awards

First Place: #1265 Mindstorm Mayhem - Homeschoolers from Milford, Merrimack & Bedford

Second Place: #1405 Mach 6 - Manchester Church of Christ